moving for a Call of the House then. All right, take the vote off the Board. All those in favor of a Call of the House vote aye, opposed nay. Record the vote.

CLERK: 18 nays, 0 nays to go under Call, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The House is under Call. The Sergeant at Arms will now bring in the members that are not here and all unauthorized personnel leave the floor. All legislators return to your desks and register your presence, please. Do you want call-in votes you said first? We can take some call-in votes if you want to to see if you can get some.

CLERK: Senator Lewis voting aye.

PRESIDENT: Let's everybody return to your desks and please register your presence.

CLERK: Senator Fitzgerald voting aye.

PRESIDENT: All right, we will just start going down through here the people that aren't here. Have you got another vote back there?

CLERK: Senator Goodrich voting aye.

PRESIDENT: Start going down through here. Senator Fitzgerald, are you here? Senator Dworak, Senator Haberman, Senator Marsh, Senator Barrett, yes. Turn on your little green light. Thank you. We need one more. Senator Fitzgerald, get that dog to do something back there, will you. That's it. Okay, everybody is here now. Do you want to....Senator DeCamp, do you wish to have a roll call vote? Three.

SENATOR DeCAMP: They are excused?

PRESIDENT: We are down to....those are excused, yes. Everyone is here that is not excused. Do you want to proceed?

SENATOR DeCAMP: Well, I would hope that Senator Reutzel and Senator Maresh could explain the issue to each other in such a way that we wouldn't have to have a roll call vote.

PRESIDENT: All right, we are going to have a roll call vote. Proceed with the roll call.

CLERK: (Read the roll call vote as found on page 1626 of the Legislative Journal.) 31 ayes, 14 nays on the motion to reconsider, Mr. President.
